

Residence of Modular Units.

Three modules called "a,b,c"

Module A is : one unit on two levels

Module B is : one unit on ground floor

Module C is : a block with two units on ground and two at the first floor

All is made of wood, the structure and the skin.

The general plan disposal is only one possible hypothesis and the modules aggregation are infinite

